

Ananias "Boy" Noko has resigned from council as a public representative (PR) councillor of the African National Congress (ANC) to pursue other political and personal interests. Mr Noko began his council term as the preferred councillor of the ward 6 by-elections in 2014 after the then ward councillor David Malo had resigned from council. He was elected as a PR councillor during the 2016 local government elections and subsequently selected to be the Municipal Public Accounts Committee (MPAC) chairperson and ANC whip.

Councillor Thembinkosi Mabovu and Councillor Thabo Morei have been selected as the MPAC chairperson and whip of the ANC respectively. The ANC will decide who will be the next PR councillor and follow all the due processes of the Electoral Commission.

The council takes this opportunity to thank him for his term in serving our community and to wish him well.
